What is Kin Thai?

Kin Thai — from the Thai กิน, "to eat" — is a three-month pop-up from the team behind To Die For, taking over the restaurant to bring Thai cuisine to Kolkata.

Kin Thai

KIN in Thai means 'to eat'

KIN in English means 'friend'

Both interpretations of the word exemplify the ideas of serving Thai food under this brand. The food and space is curated for diners to eat friendly, neighbourhood style Thai food.

Food Philosophy

Thai cuisine is diverse. It varies in many ways as you travel across Thailand. The cuisine has also evolved with various influences from China, India and even Portuguese traders. So much so, that the papaya from the popular dish Som Tam (papaya salad) only arrived to Thailand in the mid 1800s.

Our menu consists of dishes that originated in various parts of the country. The food is vibrant and bold, with fresh ingredients and a balance of sweet, spicy, sour, bitter and salty, that only Thai Cuisine knows.
